4th Development Economics Workshop

CALL FOR PAPERS

Cotonou – Benin, 23 & 24 March 2023

« African economies in the face of crises and resource mobilization »

Submission deadline for contributions: 30 December 2022

This 4th workshop in development economics aims to consolidate economic analyses on the various aspects of resilience of African economies in the face of crises (political, security, health...) and policies for resource mobilization by States. A diversity of approaches (theoretical and/or empirical, quantitative and/or qualitative) is welcome. The scope of the workshop includes the following themes:

- Resilience of African economies to crises (political, security, health...)
- Mobilization of internal fiscal resources, choice of fiscal instruments, untapped fiscal sources
- Public finances
- Sectoral public policies in the face of crises: education, social or financial inclusion, health, gender, security, etc.

We encourage the submission of complete articles, even if it is a first draft, based on methods from economics or other social sciences. Selection criteria will be rigorous with respect to methodological soundness, article's specific contribution in terms of the existing literature and accordance with the themes of the workshop.

Proposed contributions (PDF file), should be sent to the three following email address: senoumod@gmail.com (with copy to denis.acclassato@faseg.uac.bj University of Abomey Calavi) et anne-sophie.henrioul@uni.lu (University of Luxembourg)

The text can be written in French or English. The cover page of the proposal will include: Name, surname, status, institution, email, postal address, telephone number of all authors and specify the author presenting the contribution.
